Section 4.1. Classes. The Society will have three classes of member: Full Members, Associate Members and Honorary Members.

(a) Full Members. Full Members of the Society are those persons with specific interest in Sexual Medicine who have appropriate qualification as determined by the Board of Directors. All voting rights of the membership shall be vested in the full members.

(b) Associate members. Associate members of the Society are those persons who do not fulfil the criteria for Full Membership. Associate members shall have no voting rights and may not hold office in the Society.

(c) Honorary Members. Honorary Members of the Society are those persons who, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, have performed services for the Society warranting their appointment as Honorary Members and who have been elected as Honorary Members by ballot of members at a general meeting of the Society. Honorary members shall have no voting rights and may not hold office in the Society.

The Board of Directors may establish different classes of membership, prescribe their respective privileges and duties, and set the amounts of any subscriptions.

No person may be a member in more than one membership class.

Section 4.2. Admission. Any person eligible for membership will be admitted to membership only on the approval of the Board of Directors of an application submitted by that person in the form and manner prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.3. Application Fees and Dues

(a) The Board of Directors may resolve to charge a fee for applying for membership in the Society, but are not obliged to do so.

(b) The annual dues payable to the Society by members will be in the amounts determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. Annual dues may be paid directly by the Member or be paid on their behalf by an affiliated Regional Society (hereafter referred to as "Regional Society") that has been approved by resolution of the Board of Directors. Dues are payable for the first year on admission to membership and annually thereafter at the time or times as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.4. Registration. The Secretary-General must maintain a book of members containing the name, address, and class of each member in any form capable of being converted into written form. The book must also note if a membership has terminated and the date on which that membership ceased. The book will be kept at the principal office of the Society and is subject to the rights of inspection required by law.

Section 4.5. Liability and Rights. A member of the Society is not personally liable, solely because of membership, for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Society. A member of the Society shall by virtue of membership have no right or title in or to any of the assets or property of the Society.

Section 4.6. Termination.

(a) The membership and all rights of membership terminate on the occurrence of any of the following causes:

- (1) The voluntary resignation of a member;
- (2) When a membership is issued for a period of time, the expiration of that period;
- (3) The death of a member;
- (4) The non-payment of dues, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.6(b); and
- (5) The termination of all memberships or any class of members on the amendment of these bylaws permitting the termination.

(b) Termination for due cause. The membership of any member who fails to pay, or have paid on his behalf by a Regional Society, his or her dues or assessments within 30 days of the due date may be terminated at the end of that period, provided that the member was given (1) 15 days prior written notice of the termination stating the reasons for termination, and (2) a timely opportunity to be heard on the matter of the termination. The notice will be given personally to the member or sent electronically or by first class mail to the last address of the member as shown on the records of the Society. Termination of membership for non-payment of dues, for any individual or group, is not automatic and may be deferred at the discretion of the President, Treasurer or by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(c) Termination does not relieve the member from any obligation for charges incurred, services or benefits actually rendered, dues, assessments, or fees, or arising from contract or otherwise. The Society retains the right to enforce any obligation or obtain damages for its breach.

Matters of discipline regarding individual members of the Society shall be referred to an ad hoc Committee appointed by the President, which will report its findings to the Board of Directors for action. The Board of Directors has the power to suspend any member or to terminate his or her membership where due cause has been found. A record of these deliberations will be kept. Anyone subject to disciplinary proceedings, whether he or she remains a full member, inactive member, suspended member or has been expelled from membership, may address the Board of Directors on issues pertinent to the disciplinary matter under consideration. The affected member shall have the right of appeal against any disciplinary decision of the Board of Directors, which will be considered by those full members present at a Biennial General Meeting of members of the Society. The Meeting will decide the matter by a simple majority vote.

The host Regional and National societies will receive a proportion of any financial surplus resulting from the organization of the Meeting, according to a formula agreed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Any surplus retained by the host Regional and National societies must only be used to reimburse reasonable expenses and, to the extent not used for that purpose, to further ISSM's charitable aims. Any funds that will not be so used must be returned to the Society.

ARTICLE VI

BIENNIAL GENERAL MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 6.1. Location. Meetings of members will be held at a location as may be designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, as hereinafter provided.

Section 6.2. Hosting.

(a) Unless the Board of Directors determines otherwise, the Biennial General Meeting of Members of the Society and its Scientific Congress shall be hosted by each Regional Society in rotation.

(b) A Regional Society may waive its option to host the Biennial General Meeting of Members of the Society and Biennial Scientific Meeting.

(c) If, for any reason, it becomes self-evident that the hosting Regional Society is unable to fulfill its obligation to host a meeting in the due year, the Board of Directors may designate an alternative host.

(d) The members will meet every second year on the occasion of the Biennial Scientific Meeting of the Society for the purpose of transacting proper business as may come before the meeting, including the election of Directors. If the election of Directors does not occur at any meeting of the members, the Board will cause the election of Directors to be held at a special meeting of members called and held as soon as it is reasonably possible after the adjournment of the regular meeting of the members.

Section 6.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of members will be called by the President or the Board of Directors and held at the times and places that may be ordered by resolution of the Board of Directors. Ten percent or more of the members of the Society may call special meetings for any lawful purpose.

Section 6.4. Notice

(a) Written notice of every meeting of members must be either personally delivered or mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, or by electronic transmission, not less than 35 days nor more than 90 days before the date of the meeting to each member who is entitled to vote at the meeting as of the record date for notice of the meeting.

(b) If notice is given by mail or other means of written communication, the notice must be addressed to the member at the address appearing on the books of the Society or at the address given by the member to the Society for the purpose of notice. In the case of a specially-called meeting of members, notice that a special meeting will be held not less than 35 days nor more than 90 days after receipt of the written request from that person or persons by the Secretary-General of the Society will be sent to the members forthwith and in any event within 21 days after the request was received.

(c) No meeting of members may be adjourned more than 45 days. If a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, and thereafter a new record date is fixed for notice or voting, a notice of the adjourned meeting will be given to each member of record who, on the record date for notice of the meeting, is entitled to vote at the meeting.

(d) The notice will state the place, date, and time of the meeting. In the case of regular meetings, the notice will state those matters that the Board of Directors, at the time the notice is given, intends to present for action by the members. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected must include the names of all those who are nominees at the time the notice is given to the members.

(e) The record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to notice of any meeting of members is the date of the notice unless another date is established by the Board of Directors. The record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to vote at any meeting of members is 30 days before the date of the meeting of members and the record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to exercise any rights in respect to any other lawful action is 30 days before that other action, unless the Board of Directors establishes another date.

Section 6.5. Quorum

(a) A quorum at any meeting of members consists of 50 Full Members, represented in person. "Voting power" means the power to vote for the election of directors at the time any determination of voting power is made and does not include the right to vote on the happening of some condition or event which has not yet occurred.

(b) The members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken, other than adjournment, is approved by at least a majority of members required to constitute a quorum.

(c) In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes represented in person. However, no other business may be transacted.

Section 6.6. Voting

(a) Each full member is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members.

(b) Members entitled to vote are not permitted to vote or act by proxy.

Section 6.7. Written Ballot

(a) Any action that may be taken at any regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting. If an action is taken without a meeting, the Society must distribute a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The ballot must state the proposed action, provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, and provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the Society. Such ballot may be taken by electronic transmission but only for a matter referred by the Board of Directors. Approval by written ballot is valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot within the time period specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(b) Directors will be elected by written ballot of those Full Members present at the Biennial General Meeting of Members of the Society held on the occasion of the Biennial Scientific Meeting of the Society.

(c) The form of written ballots distributed to members must afford an opportunity on the form of written ballot to specify a choice between approval and disapproval of each matter or group of related matters intended, at the time the written ballot is distributed, to be acted on by that written ballot. The form must also provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that if the person solicited specifies a choice with respect to any matter the vote must be cast in accordance with that choice. In any election of Directors, any form of written ballot in which the Directors to be voted on are named as candidates and that is marked by a member "withhold" or otherwise marked in a manner indicating that the authority to vote for the election of Directors is withheld may not be voted either for or against the election of a Director.

(d) A written ballot may not be revoked.

Section 6.8. Conduct of Meetings

(a) The President of the Society or, in his or her absence, the President-Elect, or, in his or her absence, the Immediate Past-President, or, in his or her absence, any other person chosen by a majority of the voting members present in person will be Chairman of and preside over the meetings of the members.

(b) The Secretary-General of the Society will act as the secretary of all meetings of members. However, in the Secretary's absence, the Chairman of the meetings of members will appoint another person to act as secretary of the meetings.

(c) The Robert's Rules of Order, as amended from time to time, governs the meetings of members insofar as those rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these Articles, or the rules governing agenda, motions, and related matters.

(d) Before any meeting of the members or any action by written ballot, the Board may appoint any persons other than candidates for office as inspectors of election to act at the meeting. If inspectors of election are not so appointed for any meeting, or if any person so appointed fails to appear or refuses to act, the Chairman of the meeting may, and on request of any member must, appoint inspectors of election at the meeting. If inspectors of election are not so appointed for any action by written ballot, or if any person so appointed refuses to act, the President of the Society must appoint inspectors of election for that written ballot on request of any member. The number of inspectors will be either one, three, five or seven, as directed by the Chairman. The inspectors of election must perform the following duties:

(1) Determine the number of outstanding voting memberships, the voting power of each, and, when applicable, the number represented at the meeting, and the existence of a quorum.

(2) Receive votes, ballots, or consents.

(3) Hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote.

- (4) Count and tabulate all votes and consents.
- (5) Determine when the polls shall close.
- (6) Determine the result.
- (7) Do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all members.

The Inspectors must perform their duties impartially, in good faith, to the best of their ability and as expeditiously as is practical

If there are three or more inspectors of election, the decision, act, or certificate of a majority is effective in all respects as the decision, act or certificate of all.

On request of the Chairman or any member or member's proxy, the inspectors of election must make a written report concerning the performance of their duties and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. Any report or certificate made by the inspectors is prima facie evidence of the facts stated.
